

North Shore Special Education Parent-Teacher Association

SEPTA

Presents

The College Selection and Application Process for Special Education Students

Presented by

Christina Cacioppo Bertsch

College Advisor

Founder of CCB Educational Consulting Corp.

Co-Author of Life after High School: A Guide for Students with Disabilities and Their Families

Wednesday, March 25, 2015

7:30 p.m.

North Shore High School Library

450 Glen Cove Ave, NY 11545

All are welcome and are encouraged to attend

Printed material from colleges will be available

Christina Cacioppo Bertsch is a college advisor, the founder of CCB Educational Consulting Corp based on Long Island, and an educational consultant with nearly 10 years of experience in special needs college placement. Her experience as a secondary educator and university Disability Services administrator guide her as she works one-on-one with special education students and their families as they transition to post-secondary education. To learn more about her services, please visit her website at <http://collegeboundsuccess.com/>.